POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

The Radical papers are trying to devise some mode that will put a stop to the corruption in the Republican party. Numerous plans are presented, but none appear to prove effective. The Tribune proposed larger representation, but the Massachusetts papers prove by the events of the last Legislature in that State that this remedy is futile. The trouble appears to be with the party itself. The Republican party came into power by professing to be purer and holier than any other party, and its men more virtuous than any other individuals. Issues were adopted which diverted attention from home events and transferred the issues upon distant objects. As long as aspirants for official position would unite in this howl and prove themselves sound on these general questions, it mattered not how corrupt they might be, they found favor, and were placed in positions where they could give their corrupt nature full sway. The result has been that official corruption has kept pace with and grown with the growth of that party, until now it has become a "synonym" for Republicanism.—It has overrun our Legislatures, Congress, and has now reached the White House, where, according to all reports, the offices are sold to the highest bitter.

Prior to the birth of the Republican party such a thing as buying votes at the polls on election day was unknown, but under the practices of that party this system of purchasing elections has become the universal rule throughout the rural districts of the Central and Western States. A large fund is every year raised by the party and sent out to all close districts and there openly dealt out on election day. They have thus corrupted the very fountain, until now the men whom their party organs assail for corruption declare that they care nothing for these attacks, for they can buy their own nomination and election by the Republicans of their districts just as often as they choose. Buying nominations in Assembly, Senatorial and State and National Conventions, has become the universal rule in the Republican party. It is practised in Pennsylvania and in this State, and was introduced into the Chicago Convention last year. Legislative caucuses are purchased to nominate United States Senators. This is not confined to Albany and Harrisburg, but exists in every State capital where the Radicals have had the majority necessary to elect a Senator. The boast of Senator Chandler, of Michigan, when he was told that there was a bitter opposition to his re-election, that he cared nothing for the talk, for his bank account was sufficient to overcome all of that, has become almost proverbial. The truth is, that party, starting with the pretension of superior virtue and purity, has from the very outset been practising corruption, inculcating it in legislative bodies, Conventions, and even at the polls, until there is no chance to arrest it or secure a reform as long as the party has an existence. All other devices will prove futile. It is a part and parcel of that party, so firmly rooted in its organization and so interwoven in its very existence that it is impossible to eradicate it save by annihilation of that party.

THE SPURIOUS MONEY CASE.—The Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel publishes a lengthy statement about the arrest of Matian Harris, the mulatto woman who passed spurious money in Augusta. The Chronicle states that she was from Hancock county. After announcing that she was discharged after being arrested the first time, that paper says:

"On Thursday, Mr. Murphy, of the Atlanta Police, arrived here and returned on the night of that day, taking with him Lieutenant Purcell, of the Augusta force, to assist him in unraveling the plot, as heretofore it had been found impossible to get anything out of her, and it was thought that by bringing her to this city, where the crime was committed, that operations could be conducted with a better hope of success. On Friday morning Lieutenant Purcell reached Atlanta and immediately re arrested the woman on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Smith. On Friday night he took the cars with her and started home, but when the train reached Union Point he received a dispatch from United States Marshal Smythe directing him to return with his prisoner to Atlanta. On receiving this message Lieut. Purcell transferred the woman to the up night train and went back to to that city. On the cars, we are informed, the woman's courage gave way and she made a clean breast of the whole transaction.

"She stated that some time since she went North with a lady from Macon, whom she left soon after her arrival in Philadelphia. She said that she formerly knew H. M. Turner intimately when they both lived in Hancock county, and meeting him North, the intimacy was resumed. She traveled a good deal between Washington and Philadelphia, and often saw Turner in the former city. On a day between the first and fifth of June, Turner gave to her, in Washington, between $1,600 and $1,700 of this spurious currency, which she had been passing, instructed her how to get rid of it and made her promise to divide with him the good money she received. She then returned to Philadelphia, and from that time to the tenth was in constant correspondence with Turner on the subject. On the tenth of the month she started to Georgia. She passed $100 of the money in Wilmington, where she stopped several days, $100 at another place, and finally $450 in this city, as stated above.

"After an examination before United States Commissioner Smith, at which the woman still testified against Turner, a warrant was issued for the arrest of the latter, and the authorities in Macon, telegraphed to secure him. This warrant was placed in the hands of Lieut. Purcell and one of the Deputy United States Marshals, and the party immediately left for Macon, arriving there on Saturday evening. The officers found Turner seated in the Post-office, and at once arrested and hand-cuffed him. The same evening he was placed in the cars, carried to Atlanta, and placed in confinement in the military barracks. Turner seemed much dejected when arrested, and manifested a good deal of trepidation."

The Chronicle's statement about Turner is pronounced here, to be without foundation. He is certainly not now in jail, and we have been informed has never been arrested.—Chronicle and Sentinel.

CAPTURE OF A WILD MAN IN THE WOODS.

For some days there have been lurking in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, in this county, two wild or insane men, who, although they kept to the woods, succeeded, by their strange manners and desperate acts, in terrifying the inhabitants of the locality. They cut the throats of horses, cut off the ears of other animals, and would allow no human being to approach them. On Saturday one of the men was surrounded in the woods, and though he defended himself with a fence rail he was, after a struggle, captured. He was bareheaded, barefoot and without coat. He refused to speak, would not tell his name nor answer any question that was asked. He refused to eat, and showed such violence in manner that he was yesterday transferred to the custody of the Sheriff by W. Basbaw, Mayor of Harrisburg, and lodged in the county jail. He gave the building a close examination, seemed familiar with locks and cells, and tried the strength of the bars. His inspection concluded, he proceeded to trounce one of the prisoners in the hall with a broom. This was a two handed game, in which the unknown, much to his astonishment, came out second best. He was finally locked in a cell, much against his will, refusing before this, however, to touch meat or drink. Once in the cell he commenced operations on the bed, threw off the bed clothes, and finally the mattress, stretching himself on the iron bedstead. He is a man of medium size, hair dark and now long, but looks as though it had been cut close; whiskers short; eyes have a meaningless expression. He had not spoken a word last night since his capture, and paid but little attention to any one who approached his cell. It is supposed that he is an escaped lunatic from some asylum.

Assets $10,462,531,75.
Amount of Income 6,227,071.
SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,18.
THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.
Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.
THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the north-western part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of those waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:
BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, JULY 12, 1869.

VENERATION FOR THE COURT.

The veneration of the people and the Bar of North Carolina for the Courts of justice is traditional. The respectful attachment which the people felt for those who filled judicial and executive stations in North Carolina is of too recent a date to be questioned. From the earliest days of our government, down to the day of our subjugation, the laws were never more ably, faithfully or acceptably executed. Though Haywood, Moore, Taylor, Henderson, Gaston, Daniel, Badger and their worthy associates, who gave character to the Judiciary of the State, have passed away in the fulness of their fame, their examples yet live for the guidance of the present Judiciary and the admiration of all mankind. The people will not fail to compare Judges Jones, Watts, Thomas, Logan, Cannon, Henry, Tourgee, Rodman, Settle, Dick and Reade, with Haywood, Moore, Taylor, Henderson, Gaston, Daniel, Badger and Caldwell. Expressions of personal respect for the old Judiciary can be heard among the people as well as the Bar, even to this day. Why is it that expressions of personal respect and regard for the present Judiciary are never heard? Whose fault is it?—Some one is to blame. Is it the Judiciary, the people or the Bar? The answer to this question might be of service to the people, the Bench and the Bar. If the Judiciary fall, the people will fall with them. If the Judiciary stand the people must uphold them.

Hon. Archibald Henderson, who was no common judge in such matters, used to say, "the lawyers are the pillars which support the respectability and authority of the Judge."

The Judges of old felt deeply the sense of responsibility which rested upon them. They taught the Bar that the responsibility resting upon them was only second to that resting upon the Bench. There was never, until recently, any question between the Bench and the Bar, as to their duties, rights and responsibilities, the one to the other. The rights and duties of the Bench to the Bar and the Bar to the Bench, have been long since settled and defined, even before Courts of justice were known to this continent.

Judge Murphy in his oration delivered at Chapel Hill, speaks of Archibald Henderson "as the most perfect model of a lawyer that our bar has produced." This model of a lawyer used to say "he knew many good lawyers, but few good Judges. There were so many qualifications requisite for a good Judge, that they were rarely found combined." He reckoned five qualifications for a good Judge and the one the world would put first, he put last. "Good common sense and discretion of mind," was the first qualification. "Intimate acquaintance with mankind and especially with the middle and lower class of people, their passions, feelings, prejudices, modes of thinking, and motives of action," was the second. "A good moral character, with chastened feelings and subdued passions, the third; independence of mind and energy of will the fourth; and legal learning, the fifth."—"For that reason he was against the appointment of young men to the Bench, let their legal learning be ever so great. He was also against the appointment of the old who might be too proud or too indolent to mix with the great mass of the people whose society is the school of that common sense and sound discretion, so necessary in a Judge."

No Judge was ever charged in North Carolina with corruption on the Bench, nor, until recently, did we ever hear one charged with improper conduct on or off of the Bench. When it is remembered who elected the present Judiciary of the State, and that the Bar and the educated and intelligent people of the State had no agency in it, the want of veneration for the Judiciary will not be a matter of wonder. It is no fault of the Bar or the people that the Judiciary has ceased to be an object of veneration or respect. They were not the choice of the intelligent people of the State, and if they were, they have so deported, themselves both on and off of the Bench, as to forfeit that confidence and respect which always accompanies Judicial station.

We will not omit the fact that most of the Judges swore first to support and defend the government of the United States, and proved false to that oath; then they swore to support the government of the Confederate States; now they have sworn again to the government of the United States, and the Supreme Court have actually shown their loyalty to their last government and oath, by punishing their old Marshal, James Litchford, dismissing him from the service of the Court because he could not take the test oath. The contest with Cape Cod Ashley over their room; the strife with Auditor Adams, ordering his papers to be piled up in the rotunda; ordering the Auditor to jail and then allowing the Governor to defy the Court in the execution of its own orders, did much to lessen, in the estimation of the people, the respect which they have ever felt for the Courts and those who administer justice in them.

When we remember the political action of the Judges, one of them riding a Circuit and at the same time making speeches as a candidate for Congress, then fighting with his opponent in the presence of ladies; then acting as Marshal at a negro political meeting, where the Supreme Court Judges were advertised to appear with him; these things being remembered, it is wonderful that the people of the State have not assembled as they did in Chatham and denounced the Judges individually and collectively.

If anything was wanting to alienate the people and cure them of all reverence and respect for the Judiciary, it was in their late arbitrary and despotic conduct towards the Bar, assuming to punish them for political offences committed out of Court. Such Judicial tyranny was never before attempted on this continent. It was well enough calculated to cure the people, not only of all reverence, but of common respect for Court, Judge and Judicature.

THE HOLDEN-HARRIS EMBROGLIO.

We never supposed that the cross purposes between Gov. Holden and the Superintendent of Public Works, in regard to the Railroad proxy squabble, would end in anything more than a little blowing on the part of Cebe and a little spider practice on the part of the Governor, by which Cebe would find himself with the web drawn so tight around him that he would be unable to make even a lively struggle. In fact, Cebe has displayed great want of discretion in engaging in a controversy of this kind with one of the shrewdest political tricksters in the State, although the object might appear sufficient to warrant the effort—that of making his brother-in-law, Judge Logan, President of the consolidated Railroad. Holden is not to be caught with his traps unset by any obstreperous satellite who may choose to throw off his authority and set up for himself, and we are surprised at the temerity of our Superintendent of Public Works in engaging in any such rash enterprise.

With ordinary men, under ordinary circumstances, we might expect a prolonged tussle, but Cebe and the Governor know too much of each other to make a permanent estrangement pleasant or profitable to either. We expect to hear that it was only a friendly case made up between them, to decide the constitutionality and legality of the question at issue, and that they have kissed and shaken hands together and are good friends as ever. Cebe can readily apologize, and offer as an excuse for his restiveness, that he only wished to settle a mooted question; and the Governor can easily and truthfully say that he has said nothing hard against Cebe; and who dare accuse him of having incited President Smith to touch Cebe up "on the raw," in the Stockholders' meeting?

Indeed we are inclined to think the Major performed that little skinning practice on his own motion, especially as he used the scalpel pretty freely at the same time on the corpus of the Legislature, who passed the odious consolidation act. Billy is a plain, blunt man, and speaks his sentiments of persons and things, sometimes, without using nicknames; and it may be, however pleasing it might be to the Governor to see him skin Cebe, that he was performing that delicate operation for his own personal gratification.

We think the Superintendent of Public Works will have to "sing small" for the present; for the Governor is not to be trifled with by him "or any other man" and, as in the Auditor affair, Cebe would have to march over the dead bodies of the Governor's militia before the hair of a proxy shall be harmed. He can, however, apply to the Legislature again, when it meets, to assist him in defining his position; perhaps that body can find something for him to do.

CAN'T REALIZE THE SITUATION.—The Norfolk Virginian says several of the following lucid effusions were found posted up about the city of Norfolk, last Friday morning:

July 9th 1869

Sir, G. C. Walker is not elected we have it over again because it was not fare done When Your all Poor Low-st Conservative bought these col'd men votes. I want Your all to no that all of them shall be count do You think that is Justed all of them that bought a man he shall be Pounished. You think that G. C. Walker is a Elected. he is not Elected and he never will be Elected; Gov. H. H. Wells, he shall be Elected.

Sir You,
W. H. L. C. J.

Now, if we knew who the initials stood for, we would send him a copy of the Standard of this city, who not only admits that Walker is elected, but finds cause for rejoicing and exultation at the result, although that paper was for Wells up to the day of the election.

The Standard seems unable to distinguish between an itinerant, characterless adventurer, who comes "deown South" for the sake of plunder, bringing nothing but a carpet-bag, and a gentleman, like Walker, who comes in good faith to make his home among us. The one, following his natural instincts, when he comes, joins himself to the negroes and lowest class of whites, the other, seeking congenial association, turns naturally to the respectable portion of the community in which he settles. Each one finds a welcome with the class he joins; but they never commingle.

IT WILL NOT DO.—It is given out that, according to the interpretation of General Canby of the reconstruction test oath of Congress, less than a quorum of the members just elected to the Virginia Legislature will be qualified to take their seats; and that if Attorney General Hoar shall give an opinion sustaining General Canby there will probably have to be a new election. This dodge will not do; for we have no doubt that General Grant will consider the late Virginia election sufficiently conclusive to let it stand, Legislature and all.—N. Y. Herald.

THE TEHUANTEPEC RAILROAD.

The New York Herald says that the commercial interests on our Pacific shore, stimulated as it is by the opening of the Pacific Railroad, is awakening attention everywhere to the need of increased facilities for transit and the carriage of goods across the isthmus. Besides the canal project across the Darien route, French capitalists are pushing the Nicaragua Canal question, English interests are stimulating the construction of the Honduras Railroad, and American capitalists have turned their attention to the Tehuantepec route. Valuable concessions have recently been added by the Mexican Congress to the original grant for the Tehuantepec Railroad, and we learn that the operations of the company will soon be pushed with activity. This route is the nearest of all the isthmus routes to our own territory, and, therefore, merits attentive consideration at our hands. The eastern terminus lies in the Gulf of Mexico, within easy sail of our shores, and there is no reason why goods from New York should not be placed, by the Tehuantepec route, in seven days on the shore of the Pacific. All that we need to enable our city to attain its due share in the rising commerce of that great ocean is an increase of the facilities of access. Let the Tehuantepec Railroad be built at once. It cannot be opened a day too soon.

SUPREME COURT.

The only case argued before this tribunal on Saturday was that of the State vs. Prince, from Cherokee. The Attorney General for the State—no Counsel for Defendant.

To-day, (Monday,) with all the members on the Bench, the case of the University R. R. Co. vs. W. W. Holden, Gov., and D. A. Jenkins, Treas'r, which was postponed from Friday last, was argued, Messrs. Haywood, Fowle and Person for Plaintiff and the Attorney General and Pou for Defendants.—The case occupied the morning session and is still being argued as we go to press. The arguments will, perhaps, close to-day, but an opinion will not be filed for several days, as the case is an important one, and the Court will take full time to consider it.

SYLVAN ACADEMY.

The closing exercises of the spring and summer session of this institution, took place on the 2d July. Those who feel an interest in the education of the youth of North Carolina will read with pleasure, a few lines relative to this flourishing Academy, located on the county line between Alamance and Chatham, near Snow Camp P. O., a place of Revolutionary note, being the encampment of Gen. Cornwallis' army. On the 1st inst., I had the pleasure of witnessing an examination of the classes. The students evinced a familiarity with and a practical knowledge of their text books. The practical course and workings of this institution is worthy of imitation. The number of students enrolled every session varies from 140 to 180.

The Academy is under the management of Prof. S. F. Tomlinson, aided by competent assistants, and is conducted under the latest and most improved methods of teaching.

On the 2nd. of July was the Commencement. The declamations were re'ected with good taste, and delivered with a grace and eloquence rarely seen or heard. The orations exhibited a freshness and originality adapted to the times, and were highly creditable to the young men. As much can be said for the young ladies' compositions.

At 2 o'clock, P. M., Prof. C. B. Denson, of Pittsboro', delivered an able and instructive address, on the subject of "Educated Labor," which was heard with approval by an audience of more than seven hundred persons.

THE FRENCH ATLANTIC CABLE.

This cable, now in process of being paid out from the Great Eastern steamship, has some modifications of construction. The gutta percha employed for insulation is brought direct from Singapore, as it left the hands of the natives, in the shape of unsightly idols, deformed quadrupeds, caricatures of patriarchs, dogs, ships' birds; and is made into a paste for protecting the electric core. The copper wire is received from the wire-mills in banks of fifteen or twenty pounds each; each bank being tested on its arrival to ascertain its conductivity, none below a certain standard being allowed to be used. The conductor consists of a strand of seven wires, 506 in diameter, or a little less than one-sixteenth of an inch, six being twisted round the central wire.—The seven wires are rendered perfectly compact by the coating of the central wire with an adhesive matter known as "Chatterton's Compound." The weight of the complete strand is four hundred pounds per nautical mile. It is made in lengths of about one mile, and wound on reels ready to be covered with gutta percha. The strand is passed through a vessel of Chatterton's Compound, and through a die corresponding to the size of the first coating of gutta-percha, which is forced round the strand as it passes through the die. Four successive coats are thus applied, and between each coating the wire receives a film of the compound, which improves the insulation and binds the coats together. The total weight of the core is 800 lbs. per nautical mile, equally divided between the copper and the gutta percha. The total length of cable for the section between Brest and St. Pierre is 2788 nautical miles, the section thence to New York 776 nautical miles long, with smaller wire consisting of a conductor of 107 lbs. per nautical mile, and a covering 150 lbs. per mile. The cable thus prepared is finished with a serving of jute yarn and ten wires of homogeneous iron, each of which is covered with manilla yarn steeped in tar.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

DISAGREEABLE COMPANIONS.—There is a house in Adamstown, in this county, that has a garret infested with black snakes.—The family residing in the house have not, as yet, hit upon a plan by which to get rid of these horrible companions, as their den is fixed between the plastering and roof, and to remove them it would be necessary to tear down a portion of the house. How and when they gained entrance to the house is a mystery to every one. Some of the reptiles have been seen on the garret floor on several occasions, but, before a weapon to kill them could be obtained, the snakes glided off to their secure retreat behind the plastering.—Frederick (Md.) Citizen.

The other day Andrew Johnson, ex-President, went to register his name as a voter in Tennessee, and a local paper says he had a difficult time satisfying the Radical registrars that he was loyal, as he could not remember any crimes of theft, murder, rape, or the like he had perpetrated. This is a charming country, and is getting more so every day.—N. Y. Democrat.

STATE NEWS.

RAIN.—They had delightful rains in Wilmington on Friday.

EXCURSION.—Excursions seem to be the order of the day. The good people of Wilson took an excursion trip to Wilmington, thence by steamer down the river, on Friday last, returning highly pleased.

DISCONTINUED.—The Post Office at Rocky Point, New Hanover County, has been discontinued, and efforts are being made to get an office at Burgaw.

VELOCIPEDISM.—Mr. A. M. Alderman won the silver cup in the velocipede race, against several contestants, in Wilmington, last Friday.

RECOVERED.—The body of W. B. Meares, we learn from the Wilmington papers, was recovered near Big Island, in the Cape Fear, on Thursday last, some distance below the spot of the accident. It was taken to the city and interred in Oakdale Cemetery, on Friday.

MONEY ORDER OFFICES.—The Wilmington Star says, Concord, Hillsboro', Kenansville, Louisburg, Trinity College, Warrenton, Washington and Weldon, have recently been created money order offices by the Post Office Department.

GERMAN PAPER.—Mr. Julius A. Bonitz proposes to commence, in Goldsboro', about the middle of August, the publication of a weekly paper, in German, to be called "Die Sudliche Post." His object is to encourage immigration and foster the German interests in North Carolina.

The paper will be issued every Saturday, and the subscription price is $3 per annum.

LITTLETON AGRICULTURAL CLUB.—We are pleased to learn that the Agricultural Club, composed of the leading farmers of the Littleton section, is in a healthy condition, and is no doubt largely conducive to the general good of those belonging to it. It meets once a month, when the day is spent in interesting discussions upon agriculture in all its various branches and a general interchange of thought as to the best manner of improving the farm. We are only surprised that every neighborhood has not its Club, as we know they can but be productive of both pleasure and profit, while in no other way can the farming community more effectively correct any evil that may exist.—Roanoke News.

Gen. Rutherford declines to run as a candidate for the Senatorial vacancy in New Hanover County.

MASONIC FESTIVAL.—A SPLENDID SUCCESS.—THE BUILDING OF A TEMPLE A FIXED FACT.—We learn that the receipts of the Bazaar reached nearly $2 500, enough to secure a site upon which to erect the Hall. The enterprize is inaugurated, and its completion is now only a question of time.

HOW MUCH IT COSTS TO RUN THE WHITE HOUSE ON ROYAL PRINCIPLES.—Modern economy is an expensive luxury. Just examine one specimen. Under Andew Johnson there was a very clever official, named Cushaw, who acted as grand usher to the President. For $7,600 a year he consented to take the whole White House on his shoulders. For that modest sum he was content to bear the abuse of countless visitors and to repay all with uniform politeness and courtesy. How is it under President Grant? There is Dent, full Brigadier, with a salary of $5,000 per annum, Crook receiving $1,600; Price $1,600; young Douglass, $2,500; Adams (not George W. but another,) $1,600; Simmonds, a gentleman of color, $90 per month, for simply bearing cards of visitors from the eminently polite Dent to the President's private office. All these officials combined discharged the duty which Cushaw monopolized under President Johnson. In other words it now requires $13,380 to accomplish the laborious business of attending the White House visitors, while it only cost $1 600 under President Johnson. There is nothing like economy.

Through this long army of officials, it is said to be harder work to see the President of the United States than to see the Queen of England. Brigadier General Dent, acting as Grand Chamberlain, allows no one to see brother "Lyssus" but those whose claims to office he thinks ought to be favorably passed upon. For the cost of this aping of Royalty, the people foot the bill.—Exchange.

THE FIRST PRAYER IN CONGRESS.

In Thatcher's Military Journal, under date of December, 1777, is found a note containing the identical "first prayer in Congress," made by the Rev. Jacob Duche, a gentleman of great eloquence. Here it is—an historical curiosity:

O Lord, our Heavenly Father, high and mighty King of kings, and Lord of lords, who dost from Thy throne behold all the dwellers of the earth, and reignest with power supreme and uncontrolled over all the kingdoms, empires and governments! Look down in mercy we beseech Thee, on these American States, who have fled to Thee from the oppressor, and thrown themselves on Thy gracious protection, desiring to be henceforth dependent only on Thee. To Thee they have appealed for the righteousness of their cause; to Thee they look up for that countenance and support which Thou alone canst give. Take them, therefore, Heavenly Father, under Thy nurturing care.

Give them wisdom in council and valor in the field. Defeat the malicious designs of our adversaries; convince them of the unrighteousness of their cause, and if they still persist in sanguinary purpose, Oh, let the voice of Thine own unerring justice, sounding in their hearts, constrain them to drop the weapons of war from the unnerved hands in the day of battle. Be Thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly. Enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation, that the scenes of blood may be speedily closed, and order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored, and truth and justice, religion and piety prevail and flourish among Thy people. Preserve the health of their bodies and the vigor of their minds; shower down upon them and the millions they here represent, such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world, and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in the name and through the merit of Jesus Christ, Thy Son our Saviour. Amen.

The other day a young lady stepped into a well-known establishment in the Bowery, and inquired of a handsome clerk:

"Sir, have you any mouse colored gloves?"

"Mouse colored, Miss?"

"Yes, a sort of gray—the color of your drawers," meaning the store drawers, which were painted gray.

"My drawers, Miss?" ejaculated the young man glancing down at his dress to see if everything was right and tight, "My drawers, Miss? Why, I don't wear any!"

During the late hurricane at Shipman, Ill., two men were blown over one hundred yards and lodged in apple trees, without sustaining any material damage. A calf eight months old was likewise transported into a large locust tree, several hundred feet distant from where it was quietly and peaceably grazing.

MARRIED.

At St. Matthew's Church, Hillsboro', on the 7th ult., by Rev. M. A. Carter, D. D., Capt. JAS. GRAHAM, of Graham, N. C., to LIZZIE CREASHER, eldest daughter of James Webb, Esq., of Hillsboro'.

DIED:

In this City, on the 9th inst., after a lingering illness, JOSEPH LEE, infant son of Alfred and Ann E. Upchurch, aged five months and seven days.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, JULY 12, 1869.

Thos. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c.

The weather at Raleigh, N. C., as indicated by the Thermometer at the office of the North Carolina Land Company, Tucker Hall, Monday, July 12th:

7 A. M., 89. 3 P. M., 94.
12 M., 93.

A Lively Race.—A couple of negroes visited the City to-day and were recognized as being implicated in a bacon stealing affair in Chatham, some time ago, but before officers could be brought to bear on them, they "smelt a mice" and took to their heels. What became of one of them we know not, perhaps he was captured; but the last seen of the other, he was making good time through an old field, West of the City, with about half a dozen police and others, coming up slower and slower behind him.

Sultry.—Yesterday (Sunday) was the most sultry day of the season, so far. Although there was a brisk breeze blowing all day, it brought a hot, oppressive breath, that was calculated to remind one of the descriptions we read of the simoom.

Freedman's Savings Bank.—This institution has been in operation, we believe, since March 1868. As reports are made by it to the principal bank at Washington, and have not been published here, the public generally know but little of its operations. We have made inquiry in regard to its condition and find that up to the 1st of the present month, the deposits made by the Freedmen have amounted to $41,813,51. The amount of drafts to the same date is $30,459,34, leaving on hand to the credit of the depositors $354,17.

During the month of June, the amount deposited was $3,248.45, and the amount of drafts, $2,088.91, leaving undrawn for the month $1,159.54. The whole number of depositors is 417.

This is a pretty fair showing when we reflect that the deposits are made by a class of persons who, without capital, have to depend on their daily exertions for the maintenance of themselves and families, and that, too, during a period when labor is low and provisions high.

Sands' Circus and Menagerie enters the City to-day, and exhibits at Charlotte; to-morrow it opens at Salisbury; Wednesday Company Shops, and on Thursday reaches Greensboro'. From Raleigh it returns up the W. N. C. Railroad and exhibits at Hillsboro', Friday; Saturday at Greensboro', and Monday next at Danville, Va. It is spoken of by the papers as one of the most complete combinations of the kind that has ever been paraded through the country, and is South and West in all its aspects, except having a few Northern bears and other animals in its collection.

Musical.—Our neighbor, Col. Bunting, of N. C., drew the Music box, at the drawing of R. & P. E. Agency on Saturday. We are glad he got the box, for he looks like a man as little music in his corporeal machinery as any two-legged animal going.

The XIX Century."—July Number.—We have received the July number of this rattling Southern Monthly, and find not an uninteresting page between its covers.—The soldiers of both armies will be especially pleased with Confederate Reminiscences of the War, which are written in no sectional spirit. The "Adventures of Blockade Runner" is a new and attractive field of literature. All will read with pleasure the tales of Vishnu Sarmin, which embody Sanscrit Lore and Wisdom; while the articles on Duelling, Intellectual Growth in the Southern States, the tale from the Old Cynic's Port-folio, the Talmud, the racy Editorial, the Scientific and Agricultural Department, the "Dishes and Spoons" for Men, the Jumble of Sense and Nonsense, and lastly, the funny caricatures of South Carolina militia, entitled "Sc. l.'s Tactics—Illustrated Edition—Printed in Colors," present as rare and varied a table of contents as is to be found in any magazine of the country.

The XIX Century" may be found at the store of Mr. Alfred Williams. Yearly subscription $3,50. Single numbers 35 cents.

Hoxsey, the great Liver Invigorator, Blood Purifier, and Regenerator, prepared by Dr. J. C. Lawrence, the celebrated Physician and Chemist, is a SAFE, PLEASANT, and RELIABLE remedy, for the PREVENTION and CURE of the diseases caused by a TORPID LIVER, IMPURE BLOOD, DISORDERS of the KIDNEYS, DEBILITY of the NERVOUS SYSTEM.

IT REGULATES the secretions, ERADICATES TUMORS or TAINTS, restores lost or wasted nervous power, and at the same time builds up and imparts tone and vigor to the whole system.

Mysterious Affair.—On Sunday evening, 4th inst., about dusk, we saw a corpse, accompanied by some four or five persons, being carried through Harrington street, Northward, and it occurred to us at the time that it was a little singular for a funeral procession to be going that way at such a time of day, as we recollected no burying ground near the city, in that direction. On Wednesday or Thursday, some children, who were out picking blackberries, seeing a number of buzzards near a ravine, about half a mile from the corporation line, went to the spot, and saw a carcase nearly devoured; they became frightened and ran home, and it seems the information they gave circulated no further than the immediate neighbood of their homes. On Saturday afternoon last, an old woman, of whom we sometimes purchase blackberries for a Sunday dumpling, informed us that she had seen the bones of a skeleton at or near the place mentioned by the children, but so mutilated as to be totally unrecoguizable. There was no clothing or other marks about the place, by which the deceased could be identified, except that a shoe remained on one of the feet. And thus the matter stands, there having been no investigation into the affair that we have heard of.

Taking all the circumstances together, we have no doubt the body we saw being carried out on Sunday the 4th, is the same as that seen by the children and the old woman.

The Eclipse.—The central line of the total eclipse of the sun, on the 7th of August, passes over the following places: Leesburg, Magnolia, Clinton, Fayetteville, Carthage, Lexington, Mocksville, Wilkesboro, and Boon, in North Carolina; Blountsville, Taylorsville, Kingsport and Union, in Tennessee; Estliville, and Bristol in Virginia; Mount Pleasant, Manchester, Mount Vernon, Harrodsburg, and Louisville in Kentucky; Corydon, Newton, Haysville, Maysville, Bruceville and Washington, in Indiana; Robinson, Greenup, Shelbyville, Stonington, Springfield Peterburg, Bath, Macombe and La Harpe, in Illinois; Burlington, Mount Pleasant, Fairfax, Oskaloosa, Monroe, Mitchelville, Des Moines, Boonsboro, New Munich, Lake City and Cherokee, in Iowa.

The belt of the total eclipse will be about one hundred and forty miles wide, stretching from the coast of North Carolina in a Northwesterly direction, as indicated above, hence Raleigh will be included in the territory under the total obscuration. It will begin at Raleigh at 18 seconds after 5 o'clock, P. M., and the sun will set under the eclipse.

Commodore Sands, Superintendent of the U. S. Navy Observatory, requests all persons who make observations to forward their reports, together with the errors of their instruments, if known, to the Observatory at Washington.

Received.—The Carolina Farmer, for July, containing a variety of valuable information for farmers and others. Price of the Farmer $2 a year in advance—address Bernard and Bryan, Wilmington, N. C.

Personal.—We learn that the Hon. E. A. Rollins, late Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is now acting as President of the National Life Insurance Company of the United States of America, at the Company's Branch Office, in Philadelphia, during the temporary absence in Europe, of the President, C. H. Clark, Esq. Mr. Rollins has been an active member of the Board of Directors of this Company since its organization, and in giving to its interest the benefit of his personal co operation, and the advantages of his enlarged experience and extensive acquaintance, we confidently look for a renewed impetus to be given to the already unprecedented progress of this great National Institution.

A Poor Widow.—A Touching Story.—Here is a nut for the Radicals to crack. The Fort Wayne Democrat says a poor widow and four children were found in an old, dilapidated hut, in the suburbs of Springfield, Ohio, entirely destitute of the necessaries of life. Three of her children were sick, and herself worn out by over-exertion, was the mere wreck of what was once a beautiful and loving wife. Her husband fell at the battle of Chicamauga, and thus bereft of her companion, the world has dealt roughly and unmercifully with her. The very sight of her and her distressed little ones around her was enough to awaken sympathy in a heart of stone. In the midst of her trials and sufferings, and in full view of her starving little darlings, a kind, generous, and truly loil gentleman called to inform her that the Grand Army of the Republic had sprinkled flowers on the grave of her husband. This pious and loil Radical at the same time, in contemplating the gaunt and distressed form of the dead soldier's wife, intimated that the rent on her hut was about due. He also informed the starving woman that he must hasten to town before the bank closed, as he had a lot of coupons cut from his bonds, on which he wished to draw a gold interest. Such is the glory, grandeur and beauty of Radicalism!

One Boston dry goods dealer advertised that during the harmonious week, "all the female attendants at his shop will be dressed in an entirely new article of printed goods. The design is novel and appropriate, one stripe being the score of 'Hail Columbia,' and a second stripe is made of shields bearing the word 'Peace' and olive branches." Yankee all over.

GENERAL NEWS.

Santa Anna is to return to Staten Island soon.

Greeley's umbrella is forty-two years old.

Anna Dickinson is going to California "to rest." Nothing unreasonable.

Philadelphia is at last placing the names of its streets upon the street lamps.

Seven miles of violin strings vibrated at the Boston Jubilee.

Two festive New Yorkers picked the pockets of a corpse on its way to the Morgue the other day.

A young lady of Logan County, Ky., advertises for "sealed proposals for her hand and heart."

One dollar is the price which a fearless youth in Missouri asks for lo ing off a rattlesnake's head.

A Chicago circus was so crowded lately that the elephant was called in to turn people out of the ring.

Judge Parrott, of Georgia, who was recently killed by the newspapers and the K. K. K., is out in a card denying it.

The Duke of Hamilton, Eugenie's cousin, has been outlawed from the Tuileries. His latest sensation was delirium tremens.

One of the Effects.—Since the election in Virginia, her State stock has advanced in the New York market 3 per cent.

One of the adjuncts of the Peace Jubilee in moral Massachusetts was a prize-fight at Springfield, at which a hundred women were present as spectators.

"How old are you?" asked a railroad conductor of a little girl whom her mother was trying to pass on a half ticket. "I am nine at home, but in the cars I am only six and a half."

A Floridan Rip Van Winkle made his appearance in St. Mary's the other day, from the depths of the Everglades, bringing two negroes for sale. He was astonished and disgusted to learn that there had been a war, and that his negroes were free.

They have poor larger drinkers in Louisville. In a contest between two Germans of that city, as to who could drink the most of that beverage, the winner only swallowed eighteen glasses. The New York Express knows a gentleman who "regularly swallows and retains from seventy to eighty glasses of lager beer every twenty-four hours, and has not been ill for ten years."

Virginia Elections.—The Dispatch of Saturday says, official and unofficial returns received at this office up to last night from eighty six counties and cities make Walker's majority 20,160. The Conservative majority in the Senate from the same counties is 17, and in the House of Delegates 31, or 48 on joint ballot, which will be increased to more than 60 when all the returns are in. Walker's majority will be between 20,000 and 30,000.

The inhabitants of Bordeaux, says a French paper, were greatly astonished one morning, not long since, to see floating from the summit of the spire of Saint Michel a colored flag, said to be a piece of a curtain, on which was drawn a heart pierced by an arrow, and underneath were the words "Liberete, Paix." The spire is about 375 feet in height, and extremely difficult of ascent. What interest or fancy could have induced any man to perform such a feat at night puzzles every one. Two workmen have been employed to get down the banner.

Railroad Companies must find seats for every passenger, or pay damages. So at least the Supreme Court of New York on Tuesday morning decided (an appeal from a lower court) in the case of Walker vs. the Long Island Railroad Company. Plaintiff sued to recover damages for negligence that caused the death of his father, while travelling on the road about a year ago.—Deceased was standing on the platform, and was knocked off; therefore defendants contended that, as it was in violation of the printed rules hung up in the cars, plaintiff had no claim. But, it being proved that deceased had gone through all the cars, and looked in vain for a seat, the court gave judgment for plaintiff, affirming the decision of the court below.

ELECTIONS.

The regular elections occur, in the following order, on the days named, and for the officers designated:

Kentucky, August 2—State Treasurer and Legislature.

Alabama, August 2—Members of Congress.

Tennessee, August 5—State officers and Legislature.

Montana Territory, August 10—Delegate to Congress.

Vermont, September 7—State officers and Legislature.

Colorado, October 5—Delegates to Congress.

Pennsylvania, October 12—State officers and Legislature.

Ohio, October 12—State officers and Legislature.

Iowa, October 12—State officers and Legislature.

California, October 20—Judges of Supreme Court.

New York, November 2—Secretary of State, Legislature, &c.

New Jersey, November 2—Legislature.

Maryland, November 2—State officers and Legislature.

Minnesota, November 2—State officers and Legislature.

Wisconsin, November 2—State officers and Legislature.

The Golden Comb of the Virgin.—Among the treasures of the Cathedral of Valencia, and side by side with the first shirt worn by the "Infant Jesus" and the "skeleton of one of the Holy Innocents," is the "golden comb of the Virgin." It is of antique form and workmanship, with teeth on both sides, and is richly jeweled.—A beautiful casket in the same cathedral contains the santo cáliz, or cup used by Jesus Christ at the last Supper. It is of fine onyx, studded with gems of rare value, has two golden handles, and a stand of the same metal. These treasures are not of great value, but they are of peculiar interest.

The Boston Navy yard now has 1200 men at work. Within a few weeks orders have been received to fit for sea three vessels, including the second rate iron-clad Terror, formerly the Agamemnon, the sloop-of-war Nantucket, and the new steamer Benicia, the latter being ordered to Portsmouth. The Wabash, 42 guns, 2918 tons burthen; Ticonderoga, 9 guns, 1533 tons; Shenandoah, 7 guns, 1378 tons; Alaska, 10 guns, 1122 tons; Manitou, 13 guns, 1445 tons, have been ordered up for thorough repairs, but are not being fitted for sea.

The proof that Gen. Grant's rule is to accept whatever presents are offered him would be perfect if there were any exception to it.—Courier-Journal.

Saturday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, July 9.—Col. Robb, Collector of Customs at Savannah, is here. The Secretary of the Treasury has placed at his disposal the revenue cutter "McCulloch," until the "Sanasmond," now at Baltimore repairing, is serviceable.

Revenue to-day nearly a million.

The President has appointed John Dietrich Collector of Customs at Velasco, Texas, vice Wayley, suspended.

Distillers licensed to make spirits from grain may distil fruit without increasing their tax, attaching to an establishment exclusively devoted to fruit distillation

No fractional currency has been issued this week.

All spirits forfeited from having been left in bonded warehouses after the first of July, has been ordered to be sold. The Collector gets five per cent. commission.

Cubans have the following:—Letters received from prominent Cuban officers via Nassau and Key West bring dates to the first instant. Intelligence of the arrest of the Cuban Junta and others in New York, produced a most profound impression of surprise and regret. No other news could have caused such a feeling of despondency. One of the writers says "It came like the news of the death of your warmest and best friend—your only friend. The feeling of all seemed to be that we were alone and must expect no assistance. However, all seeing that it is now liberty or death, for no mercy can be expected from the Spaniards, will fight as only men driven to such desperation can fight." Lilona, who succeeded Lesca at Nuevitas and Puerto Principe, is reported to have lost 300 troops by desertion to Quesada.

Deserters report that the disaffection among the Spanish troops is increasing, caused by frequent changes of commanders of posts and quarrels of regimental officers. Frequent collisions occur between outposts without serious loss on either side. The Cubans claim an advantage of position and earnestness on the part of their troops. The Spanish commanders continue to execute all prisoners immediately upon their capture. Even those who are wounded are executed on the field. Quesada has hitherto respected the rights of prisoners. This policy is giving dissatisfaction in his camp. His followers demand retaliation.

Public printer Clapp, replying to the Committee of Book Binders regarding the employment of apprentices, denies the right of any private organization to dictate to the Government. The Journeymen Carpenter's Association in this city have inserted the word "white" in their Constitution, thus excluding blacks from membership.

The Conservatives of Mississippi and Texas are not hopeless of securing an earlier election day than that ordered at the Cabinet meeting yesterday, and one which will not interfere so much with cotton picking. It appears that Mr. Boutwell, in Cabinet council, thought the proposed day would be the idiest of the season.

FROM WILMINGTON.

Wilmington, N. C., July 10.—Weather hot. Thermometer 86. Wind light S. W.

MARKETS.

Wilmington, July 10.—Spirits Turpentine steady at 39. Rosin quiet at $1,65 to $6. Crude Turpentine unchanged. Tar $4,20.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, July 12, M.—News from Vera Cruz of the 5th, states that the elections throughout the country resulted favorably to the Government.

President Grant has gone to Baltimore to the Sangerfest.

Gov. Pease, of Texas, is here in the interest of the Conservative Republicans.

Gov. Pendleton, President of the Grand Council of the Union League, promises material aid to the Texas Republicans. Several speakers will canvass the State after the state election is over, in the interest of the Davis ticket.

Governor Walker, of Virginia, had a long and satisfactory interview with the President this morning.

Lamb.—The President has abandoned his trip to Baltimore.

NEW YORK.

New York, July 12 M.—The Bark Rebecca Chipman, has arrived from Matanzas with several cases of yellow fever on board. There were four deaths during the voyage.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, July 12, M.—Official election returns, so far, show that the blacks voted closer to their registered strength than the whites did. The less intelligent blacks, who had been under the belief during the canvass, that if the Walker ticket succeeded their rights would be taken from them, and who were assured by Wells, in a speech, the day before the election, that a victory for Walker would be no victory, as the election would have to be held over again, are not generally disposed to accept the situation. Yesterday afternoon, a Walker negro was set upon by a colored mob on one of the public promenades, and had to be rescued by the whites.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-scorbutic virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. At last it comes to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs, or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or tumors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, breathing feetid, unclean ness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, even inherited by the most constant and judicious cares, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is scarcely less sure in its action. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. *Leuc

JUNE.

BY WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

I gazed upon the glorious sky,
And the green mountains round,
And thought that when I came to lie
Within the silent ground,
'Twere pleasant that, in flowery June,
When brooks set up a cheerful tune,
And groves a joyous sound,
The sexton's hand, my grave to make,
The rich, green mountain turf should break.

A cell within a frozen mound,
A dell borne through steel,
And icy clods above it rolled,
While fierce the tempests beat;
Away!—I will not think of these—
Blue be the sky and soft the breeze,
Earth green beneath the feet,
And be the damp mound gently pressed
Into my narrow place of rest.

There, through the long, long summer hours,
The golden light should lie,
And thick, young herbs and groups of flowers,
Stand in their beauty by.
The oriole should build, and tell
His love-tale close beside my cell;
The idle butterfly
Should rest him there, and there be heard
The housewife-bee and humming-bird.

And what if cheerful shouts at noon
Come, from the village sent,
Or songs of maids, beneath the moon,
With fairy laughter blent?
And what if, in the twinkling light,
Betrothed lovers walk in sight
Of my low monument?
I would the lovely scene around
Might know no sadder sight nor sound.

I know, I know I should not see
The season's glorious show,
Nor would its brightness shine for me,
Nor its wild music flow;
But if, around my place of sleep,
The friends I love should come to weep,
They might not haste to go.
Soft airs, and song, and light, and bloom
Should keep them lingering by my tomb.

These to their softened hearts should bear
The thoughts of what has been,
And speak to one who cannot share
The gladness of the scene;
Whose part, in all the pomp that fills
The circuit of the summer hills,
Is—that his grave is green;
And deeply would their hearts rejoice
To hear, again, his living voice.

From the Omaha Herald, June 30th.

"LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT."

On Wednesday last a young couple, who were apparently in the enjoyment of the sweets of matrimonial existence, were among a Bus load of passengers, transferrd across the river by the Passenger Transfer Company of this city.

In Canton, Ohio, about one year since the father of Miss Orie L. Bradley died. Her mother had been deceased for over two years. On his death bed the father requested the Rev. John L. Peabody, an old friend of the family, and the professor of a young ladies' seminary near Canton, to take charge of his daughter—an only child—leaving money for her maintenance and education. The Professor gave his word that she should be well cared for, and we believe fulfilled his promise in every particular. In fact she has ever since been a member of the Professor's family, and attended the seminary under the tutorage of her guardian. For some time she had expressed an intention of taking a trip to San Francisco for the purpose of visiting an uncle, one of the largest merchants of that western metropolis. Her guardian opposed the trip only upon one ground, and that was that there was no one to go with her as a protector.

But this objection was fortunately overcome by the arrival of a gentleman named Frederick A. Hendricks, whose father and the Professor has been schoolboys together. Mr. F. represented the dry goods house of Burns, —— & Co., Broadway, New York, and was on a business trip to Sacramento, with a possibility of going through to the coast. He, being an old friend, was made a member of the family during his stay, and, of course, found the acquaintance of Miss Orie, who was perfectly delighted when she learned that he was bound for California, the very section which she wished to visit. It took but a short time for her to make arrangements, and the time Mr. Hendricks was to take his departure found her in readiness to receive his protection on a trip "across the continent."

Starting on their long journey, they were thrown more closely into each other's company, and their acquaintance advanced to friendship, ripened into love and finally culminated in matrimony. To again shorten the story they were married in Chicago on the 22nd instant, and on the same evening took a sleeping coach upon the Northwestern for Omaha.

Supervisors.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents teat already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh.
